Population Problems in History’s Mirror

The Centre for Population Studies of the Faculty of Economics, Lomonosov Moscow State University, holds, in April 22-24, 2010, the 6th International Conference on Population Problems “Dmitry Valentey Commemorative Readings” (<http://dmo.econ.msu.ru/Valentey-Readings/2010/en>). The conference deals with historical demography, history of population, of demographic theories and policies in Russia and abroad.

Organizing Committee is grateful to the Russian and foreign colleagues who would like to participate in the Conference. Now the list of participants is closed and all of them are requested to send their full papers to the Organizing Committee up to December 15, 2009. As soon as the final Conference Program is completed, the third information letter will be sent to all participants. All the full papers presented by the deadline (December 15, 2009) will be published.

Participants coming from the other cities and countries are invited to inform the Organizing Committee whether they need an accommodation in Moscow during the conference (hotel or university residence).

Those participants who need a visa for entering Russia have to fill in the following form. Since the carrying out of the official invitation takes a lot of time, the completed form and a copy of passport should be sent to the Organizing Committee before November 1, 2009.
